Bread Club Recipes.

Pop Overs.

1 cup flour, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 7-8 cup milk, 1-2 teaspoon melted butter.

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Add liquid to dry ingredients, reserving half to rinse egg cup. Beat yolks and whites together. Shortening melted and added last. Bake in muffin tins.

Muffins.

1 pint flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 2 teaspoon baking powder, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon shortening.

Sift all dry ingredients into a bowl. Add milk and eggs. Melted shortening last. Bake quickly and serve hot.

The Fireless Cooker.

There should be a fireless cooker in every kitchen in the land, because it does away with much of the drudgery which three meals a day three hundred and sixty five days a year ordinarily entail. It is absolutely reliable. Think what it is to cook without having to stay in the kitchen to watch the food or feed the fire. A fireless cooker is a faithful friend because:

1. It is economical. It saves about 90 per cent. fuel used in cooking.
2. It is economy of labor.
3. It is economical because there is no evaporation of food cooked in it.
4. It develops flavor in food. Long slow cooking develops fine flavor in many foods.
5. A fireless cooker means that cooking is going on without increasing the heat of the kitchen on the hottest summer day. All the heat is shut off in the box with the food, doing the legitimate work of cooking instead of pervading the whole kitchen to the discomfort of the housewife.

6. A fireless cooker makes it easier to do without a servant.

Now the question:

How May a Fireless Cooker Be Made?

Select a box, bucket, keg or barrel, made of sufficiently heavy material to admit of having hinges and a hasp put on it. It should have a well-fitted lid. The box should be without large cracks. If desired several sections may be made in box. A lining on inside of box prevents air and dust from finding their way in. Pack the bottom of boxes with several inches of insulating material, newspaper crushed and torn and packed close, or cotton seed hulls, best. Next select a cooker vessel, tin lard can, etc. with a close-fitting lid, and place in the center of the box on the bottom packing. Hold firmly in place, pack closely around it to the top of the pail. Cover the packing material with a cover made of cardboard, thin wood, or zinc. Make a cushion to fill the space between the top of the vessel and packing and the lid of the cooker. The cooker is now ready for the heated soap stone and your food in a cooking vessel.

A fireless cooker may be seen and tried by phoning the county home demonstration agent, Miss Wise.

MR. OTTO TIEDEMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

Widely Known Merchant—Native of Germany, Dies in 96th Year of Age.

News and Courier.

Mr. Otto Tiedeman died yesterday afternoon at his residence at No. 152 Broad street in the 96th year of his age. He was probably the oldest native German in South Carolina.

Born in Sellstedt, near Bremerhaven, February 7, 1821, he came of that sturdy Hanover stock which has done much for German prestige in the Southern States. He received a good education in Germany.

At the age of 17 Mr. Tiedeman sailed with other emigrants for Charleston. He arrived here in 1838 and secured a position as a grocery clerk. After a year he became a partner of John A. Cook, Jacob Cook being the other partner. Their place of business under the firm name of Tiedeman, Calder & Co.

The partnership continued, for five years, after which Mr. Tiedeman carried on the business on his own account until 1871, when he became an active partner in a wholesale business under the firm name of Tiedeman, Calder & Co.

After three years (in 1874) Mr. Tiedeman took over the whole business and his sons, Messrs. Otto Tiedeman, Jr., and John C. Tiedeman, became his partners. Mr. Tiedeman was highly successful in the business, the loss in 1907.

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

NEWBERRY MAN'S LUCKY FIND

Will Interest Readers of The Herald and News.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swelling, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Newberry man.

G. W. Swittenburg, grocer, 1109 Boyce St., Newberry, says: "Hard work on the farm weakened my kidneys. I had rheumatic pains all through my body and could hardly bend to put my shoes on. I suffered intensely from backache and the kidney secretions passed too frequently and were scanty and painful. The secretions also contained a heavy sediment that looked like brick-dust. I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills at W. G. Mayes' Drug Store and the first box helped me. I continued taking them until I was cured."
